MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT : Bi-weekly Report
14-28 May 1965

1. The 19th Session of the NIS will be held 14 June-9 July. Against a quota of 8, CIA presently has 4 nominations: 2 - DDI, 1 - DDS, 1 - DDP. Other nominations are expected from the DDP.

25X1A 2. For the "CIA day" in the 19th Session, two new speakers are re-25X1A quired: one to replace the Special Assistant to the DDP, who has discussed
"The CIA Field Station;" the other to substitute for the Chief [REDACTED] who will be on leave. For the latter, [REDACTED] 25X1A [REDACTED] has been designated by [REDACTED] I 25X1A have discussed the objectives of the presentation with him and will again be working with him in the coming week. In the first instance, no replacement has been named by the ADDP. I am in contact with the DDP/TRO with regard to both speakers.

25X1A 3. [REDACTED] by reason of being on leave, will not be available to address the next Session of the NIS. At his suggestion, Mr. Thomas P. Thornton, a foreign service officer in INR and author of several books on communism has been secured to give the lecture.

25X1A 4. A lecture on the "Motivational Aspects of Counterinsurgency," a subject under consideration by the NIS faculty for some time, was given in the training conference by a representative of the research and engineering staff of DOD. Having had previous discussions with [REDACTED] con-25X1A cerning a possible agency contribution to the Seminar in this area, I arranged for a member of his consultant group to hear the lecture. After the lecture, we [REDACTED] and I) concluded that the lecture was limited in its usefulness inasmuch as its substance centered on studies based on the interrogations of VC prisoners of war. The areas of personal assessment to determine motivations, the identification of leadership traits in other cultures and techniques of persuasion were largely untouched. These sub-25X1A jects are of great interest to ambassadors and chiefs of military missions.
[REDACTED] has agreed to prepare for me a prospectus of such a lecture for discussion with the Coordinator. Such a lecture cannot be given by the Agency group unless questions of cover and security -- which I have not examined as yet -- can be resolved. It does appear, however, to be an area in which the agency can make an additional contribution to the Seminar.

5. On May 28, I gave the lecture on counterinsurgency to the 77th Intelligence Orientation Course.

6. The #3 issue of TRANSITION, the quarterly publication of the NIS, contained an article entitled, "The Indoctrination System of the Communist Clandestine Services." The article was made available by the CI Staff/DDP. The next issue will carry the OCR bibliography, "Public Texts in Intelligence."
